Officer Kenyon observed that [REDACTED] had bruising on the left side of his head and the whites of his eyes were completely red. [REDACTED] was transported to Sanford ER for treatment
3. [REDACTED] reported that he had gone to defendant Hanna's residence, which is located at [REDACTED] Sioux St. Sioux Falls, SD 57104. The victim stated that he

Defendant Hanna told the victim that he did not have the money. Defendant Hanna instructed the victim to return the next day (Sat. Aug. 10th).

4. The victim reported that he returned to defendant Hanna's residence on Aug. 10th. The victim stated that there were other subjects present in the house when he arrived. The victim identified them as "Jim", "Pitbull", "Beef" and "Mike".
5. The victim reported that these subjects accused him of a drug deal "gone wrong". They began demanding $275 from the victim.
6. The victim reported that these subjects then grabbed him and the victim was struck several times in the face. The victim stated that he lost vision and was having trouble hearing after being hit in the face.
7. The victim reported that "Pitbull" then used a knife and cut the victim's shirt and belt and then made the victim remove all of his clothing. The victim reported that "Pitbull" also used a blue torch to burn the victim's face and hair. These subjects then forced the victim into the basement. The victim reported that the basement door was secured shut with an extension cord.
8. The victim reported that "Pitbull" told him that they were going to take the victim out of state and kill him. The victim was then forced to provide the phone number for his wife. The victim overheard defendant Hanna call the victim's wife and pretend to be a doctor. The victim stated that Hanna attempted to arrange a meeting with the victim's wife during this call.
9. Officers confirmed with the victim's wife that she received a call from [REDACTED] that she states was from a doctor. A voicemail was also left from [REDACTED] stating "Drink drink drink live hello. This is you man again please give me a call at [REDACTED] The family matter I think You'll like what I have to say _____ a changed man after today all right _____ have [REDACTED] back the it was when you first met him all right thank you much bye-bye.

12. The victim reported that on the morning of Aug. 12th, defendant Hanna let him out of the basement. The victim was told to shower and clean up. The victim stated that Hanna later left the residence. According to the victim, defendant Hanna left three different subjects at the residence that were in charge of "watching" him.

After defendant Hanna left the residence, the other subjects "set him free" and the victim ran from the residence.

13. While at the Sanford ER, the victim was found to have severe bruising and facial fractures as a result of the assault. Officer MacFarlan noticed that the victim appeared to have minor burning on the left side of his face.
14. On Aug. 12th, 2019 Officers went to defendant Hanna's residence. Defendant Hanna initially reported that he did not know the victim and the victim had not been inside of the residence. Defendant Hanna granted consent for Officers to search the residence. Officers located a cut t-shirt with suspected blood near the couch, as described by the victim. Defendant Hanna told Officers that the shirt was his and had been caught on a door. The shirt had clearly been cut with a sharp instrument. Defendant Hanna also did not have any wounds on his body that would account for the blood on the shirt. Officers also found containers in the basement that appeared to contain urine. Defendant Hanna continued to deny that anything had happened at his residence.
15. On Aug. 12th, 2019 Your Affiant accompanied defendant Hanna to this residence. Your Affiant located several torches, including a blue one as described by the victim. Your Affiant also observed an extension cord that was tied to an air compressor in the kitchen. Defendant Hanna explained that the other end had been tied to the basement door handle. Defendant Hanna advised that this was the cord used to secure the basement door.
16. Your Affiant interviewed defendant Hanna at the Law Enforcement Center on Aug. 12th and Aug. 13th. During the interviews Hanna eventually admitted that the victim had been inside of his residence. Defendant Hanna stated that the victim was at his residence and "Pitbull", "Beats", "Bartender", and "Mike Smith" burst through the door. Defendant Hanna identified "Pitbull" as defendant Robert Fitzler. The Defendant identified "Bartender" as defendant Webb. Defendant Hanna was unable to provide a positive identity for "Beats" or "Mike Smith" at that time.
17. Defendant Hanna stated that the victim was being accused of owing the others money. Defendant Hanna stated that defendant Fitzler, defendant Webb, "Beats" and "Mike Smith" began to physically assault the victim. Defendant Hanna stated that he knew things were getting out of control, so he left.
18. Defendant Hanna stated that he went to the Kum N Go which is located a few blocks from the residence. Defendant Hanna stated that he returned to the residence a short time later and the victim was in the basement. Defendant Hanna stated that he was instructed to keep the victim in the basement.

19. Defendant Hanna stated several times during the interviews "They were going to [REDACTED] kill him". When asked, Defendant Hanna stated that heard conversation between defendant Fitzler, Defendant Webb and "Mike Smith". During the conversation, they stated that the victim needed to be killed. Defendant Hanna also stated that "Mike Smith", Defendants Fitzler and Webb believed that the victim is "a snitch" and confidential informant.
20. Defendant Hanna stated that he was informed that the plan was to "cut him up and throw him in the river". Defendant Hanna stated that he found a blue tarp and chainsaw in his residence. These items had been moved from their normal place in the basement and were now upstairs. Defendant Hanna stated that he believes the tarp and chainsaw were going to be used to kill the victim.
21. Your Affiant recovered a Stihl chainsaw and blue tarp that had been placed inside of a trash bag. These items were recovered from the kitchen of defendant Hanna's residence.
